Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in Webb Ranches internships. Please read through this document in great detail prior to applying! We have many years of experience within the industry and are excited to offer opportunities to you. At Webb Ranches, you will refine your horsemanship, gain knowledge in all aspects of horse training and breeding while growing as an individual.

As with any working ranch, these positions require a strong work ethic, an open mind and a willingness to learn. We typically work 6-7 days a week and our days run well into the evening. You will be put in new and novel situations and the horses you will start will be completely green, having been handled minimally. That being said, this is a position for EXPERIENCED RIDERS ONLY! Please take this into consideration when you apply. Timid or inexperienced riders are not suitable for this position. You will be responsible for training these colts; from the first ride to more advanced skills. This is not a glamorous job, but is very rewarding and exciting. Colt starting experience is NOT required. However, extensive riding experience is MANDATORY. This internship is not intended to teach you introductory riding skills.

Please include a video of you riding along with your application. It can be a YouTube link or attached in an email.

In return, you will be fully trained in colt starting techniques and advanced breeding techniques from the ground up. Bogie will coach you both as a group and one-on-one. You will have hands-on experience with advanced breeding techniques. You will gain new friendships and meet people from all over the world. You WILL NOT spend your days cleaning stalls - you will be working with horses all day, every day. You will gain confidence in yourself and your horsemanship skills. You will leave here a better person.

Training positions are available year round. However, Webb Ranches' colt starting program runs from mid-May to mid-August. The Colt Starting Challenge Competition is typically the first week of August. Please note on the application what date you would like to start.

Option of room & board provided for $300/month. Webb Ranches supplies you with room and board if you would like. We supply all bedding and towels, washing machine/dryer, and meals. We have a 125' x 200' indoor arena, outdoor 90' x 150' colt riding pen and 150' x 250' outdoor arena. You may bring a horse of your own, but arrangements must be made first with Bogie and additional costs may apply. You are welcome to set up your own living arrangements if so desired.

Please feel free to contact us should you have any questions or concerns. We can put you in touch with others that have been through our programs should you want another viewpoint. You may also check Bogie Webb's YouTube channel or website to see video of what Webb Ranches accomplishes with their colts.

A $300 non-refundable deposit is required to secure your internship position should you be accepted into the program.

Sincerely,
